

Want to wave kite away from the crowds? This is the tour for you!

Your tour starts when you are met by your TUN guides at the front of the Bombora shop at 8am. You are then taken by bus to the Mui Ne Village resort at Suoi Nuoc beach. About a 40 min bus ride.

On arrival the guide will give you a briefing on the resort facilities (which are available for use for TUN patrons) and the area which you will be kiting in. There are SUPs and surfboards available to catch a few waves while waiting for the wind to come in. By the time the wind gets in the assistant will have your kites set up ready for you to hook in and go!

Lunch and refreshments are available from the resort bar and restaurant at a discounted price for TUN patrons. Our experienced guides will be keeping a close eye on you so don't hesitate to ask them for any tips and advice, to better your wave kiting skills. The days kiting session ends at 5:00pm where you are transported back to the Bombora Shop arriving around 5:45pm.

Just getting into the wave kiting, this is the perfect place to practice before you head out into the bigger stuff. The waves here are smaller so you can practice getting through the white water and your jibes. As you progress through the day you may head further south along the beach where the waves start to get a little bigger. (this will be at your guides digressions though).

The tour will start at the Bombora Shop at 11am where you are met by our guides. You will then be transported to Suoi Hong beach by bus (about 25min bus ride). The guide will then give you a briefing on the area that you will be kiting in. By the time the briefing has finished the assistant will have your equipment ready for you to hook in and go!

Our experienced guides will be keeping a close eye on you so don't hesitate to ask them for any tips and advice, to better your wave kiting skills.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided throughout the day

The day ends around 5:00pm where you will be brought back to the Bombora Shop arriving at 5:30pm. The tour starts when you are met by your TUN guides at the Bombora shop at 9:30 and then taken by bus to a starting point about 5km south of Phan Thiet (about 45min drive). When you arrive at the starting point, the lead VKT guide will give you a briefing on the downwinder about the stretch of beach you will be kiting down. Then it will be set up and get out on the water. Once the group is on the water, with a lead guide in front and another behind the group you will kite the waves towards Kega. The support bus will follow the group down the coast, to help out if there are any problems. At the end of the 15km long beach, at the lead guides digression, (pending on conditions), you will either kite around the point to the next bay, then, kite down to the Bau Mai Resort or, land, pack your kites up and board the bus, to be taken around for a late lunch at the Bau Mai Resort. The rest of the day can be spent either kiting the waves out the front of the resort or you can relax and enjoy the resort facilities on offer.

What you need to bring: Hat, sunscreen, towel, kiting gear, change of clothes

This is a long day! The tour starts at the Bombora Shop at 6:30am, where you will be met by the TUN guides. Then it's on to the bus for a 140km (about 3 1/2hrs) drive up the coast to the kiting location. With Phan Rang are three locations to choose from, one north of Phan Rang (map link) (about 15km and one to the south of Phan Rang (map link) and one at Ninh Chu beach, pending on the groups experience in wave kiting it will be up to the digression of the guides to which location is chosen. The TUN guide will give a briefing of the kiting area when you get there. Then it will be set up and get out in amongst it. Good wind, big waves!

Lunch and refreshments throughout the day will be provided. The day will end around 4:30pm, where it will back on the bus to Mui Ne, arriving around 8:00pm

2/3 Day Tour

What you need to bring: Hat, sunscreen, towel, kiting gear, clothes for an overnight stay at hotels in Mui Ne.
