

The useful information for travelling to Da Nang

Da Nang attracts tourists with beautiful beaches, natural forests, epic mountains, exotic cuisine, and friendly locals. More and more tourists are excited to visit this pretty city, for once to experience all of the fascinating aspects of its. In addition to the natural beauty, Da Nang is enclosed by UNESCO world heritages, including cultural sites like Hue, Hoi An, My Son, and slightly further by natural site which is Phong Nha - Ke Bang National Park in Quang Binh. Hence, Da Nang has been viewed as a significant knot of the culturally-rich Central Vietnam

A diversity of spectacular scenes

Da Nang is a coastal city with more than 60 kilometers of seaway and beautiful white-sandy beaches which were voted by the Forbes of USA to be one of the six most attractive beaches in the world. Dipping in the clear blue seawater, playing with waves and tanning on the charming white sand will help tourists get lost from daily life stress. Additionally, the city offers many luxury resorts in Da Nang and a wide variety of tourism services, for instance: canoeing, parachuting, wave surfing, kayaking, Jet Ski, and coral reef diving.

Not only well-known by its pretty beaches, Da Nang is also famous for its mighty Truong Son mountain range and Son Tra peninsula. Hai Van pass, traversing Truong Son mountain, has become a historical icon and considered as the “National number one epic scene”, with its superb views and breathtaking sinuous turns. Upon its operation, Hai Van pass has solved the transportation difficulties from North to South and gradually become a favorite destination for nature-lovers or for folks who want to take risks on the tortuous trails.

West of Da Nang is known for its Ba Na Hills, discovered and built back from the French colonism. Ba Na has attracted tourists by its teleferic that scored two world records and Fantasy Park which is the largest recreational park in Southeast Asia.

Located in the northeast of Da Nang, Son Tra peninsula possesses copious fauna and flora, in addition to rocky primitive beaches. Heading southeast, tourists will encounter Ngu Hanh Son Mountain, enriched with natural beauty and cultural and religious values

Friendly and active environment

Not only being favored by Mother Nature, Da Nang is also worth to live because of its peaceful environment. Being continuously ranked as the second in economic growth rate nationwide, Da Nang however has still maintained socially organized and safe. Hardly any beggars and drug addicts have been seen here recently and traffic has been improved significantly positive. These bring to the tourists a relief strolling around the city. Visiting Da Nang, tourists will have a chance to enjoy a variety of signature cuisine including: Quang noodle, pork wrapped in rice papers, and fresh seafood from more than 150 high-quality restaurants.

Currently, Da Nang is experimenting inputting recreational activities into tourism, for instance: night tours in Bach Dang district, traditional art performances, and late night amusement. Da Nang now has a 18-hole golf field which gained quite a few of international awards and ready to serve the fans of this sport.

Aiming to become an event-oriented city, Da Nang has organized many great tourism events; one of them is the International Firework Competition, attracting artful performances from all over the world. In May 2020, Da Nang for the first time held the International Parachuting Competition, followed by its annual “Summer rendezvous” in June with plenty of recreational activities that satisfy tourists’ wishes

Easy access

Being very convenient for tourists, Da Nang owns an international airport, serving more than 6 millions customers a year and offering quite a few direct international flights with Vietnam visa on arrival service. Tien Sa marine port also frequently welcomes tourism yachts to Da Nang. Additionally, Da Nang is a major stop for trains and road-trip buses

Climate

Climate is year-round mild and warm in Da Nang, with two distinct seasons: rainy season from July to December and dry season from January to June, sometimes there are cold days but short and mild. Average temperature is 25.9°C, hottest months are June, July and August when temperature can reach 28-30°C and coldest months are December, January, and February with average temperature about 18-23°C. Except for Ba Na alpine area, at elevation around 1500m, average temperature is only 20°C.

Time to travel

Best time to visit Da Nang is from February to May. June to August is fine, even though the summer here is relatively hot and rainy. September to January has scattered rain and nights can get colder.